One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him, and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

DEDICATION

As we walk the path of life
Through the sands of time,
We often need encouragement
To reach horizon's line.

When we're in confusion
And cannot find the route,
The beacon that we follow
Is a mentor's printed foot.

Impressions in the earth
Help to achieve our aim
By setting down the by-laws
To life's strategic game.

We dedicate this book
To footprints in our sight,
Belonging to the people
Who lead us to the light.

♀LA

40th Anniversary

1984 marks OLA's 40th birthday.

In 1932, a small group of Felician Sisters acquired the 32-½ acre Mifflin property on Enfield St., known as Longview estate. From its beginning the religious community had always undertaken as part of its mission the education of children. So as soon as they were able the sisters established a girls' academy.

The Felicians opened their school on September 6, 1944 with 11 students and 7 faculty members. Since negotiations for the Graham Estate, located at 1370 Enfield St., were incomplete, classes were held in Our Lady of the Angels provincial house buildings across the street.

On November 21, 1944, Fr. Maximilian Soltyssek, chaplain of the sisters, and Fr. Paul Bartlewski, pastor of St. Adalbert's parish in Thompsonville, blessed the new academy quarters, an heirloom built by the Rev. Nehemiah Prudden and renovated to serve as a school. The first year culminated with the graduation of three seniors.

Financial resources were meager, but the school was richly "endowed" by the sisters, who contributed their teaching and administrative services. Bit by bit the school grew. Day students from Thompsonville, Hazardville, Somers, Suffield, Windsor Locks and surrounding areas continued to register. Enrollment increased and necessitated additional classrooms. In 1948 Felician Hall was readied and provided three rooms for the commercial department which began in 1949. An annex was built to Felician Hall in 1951. This addition included two large classrooms, the principal's office and the first-aid room.

When the provincial house was no longer adequate for the sisters, a new provincial house, a three story brick building, was erected on the north side of the old convent. This building was completed in 1957, and the former convent was renovated to serve as the academy's new quarters. That year also marked the academy's first accreditation by the New England Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. 1984 saw OLA receive its third accreditation by this association.

Principal Sr. Constance Marie observes that "the quality of education at OLA, small classes, personal attention and the emphasis on Christian values attract students to the school. I believe that what makes for OLA's unchanged heart is that which was at the root of its founding and is today that to which everyone of us here is committed: growth as a whole person in accordance with the Gospel message of love and peace. Without that as the root and core of OLA'S being, there could be no OLA."

Overheard by screaming kids;
 Authoritative sounds.
 Teaching us all discipline
 For when we're college bound.

Explaining to us learning guides,
 Correcting all our tests.
 Remaining calm when answered wrong,
 Always giving it your best.

Not giving up on anyone,
 Finding the good with the bad.
 Listening when we have a joke
 Or when there's something sad.

You help us make it in this world
 By giving us a cause.
 For all of this and much, much more,
 We give you our applause.

Everyday, every week.
People pass each other
Going from class to class,
Searching for their future,

Hoping that their steps lead
To horizons they long to cross,
Leaving footprints of experience
For others to follow.

A special bond exists among them,
Not only as classmates
But as friends; as sisters
They fight for a common cause.

Living each day to the fullest,
Trying to realize their dreams,
Waiting to conquer their fears,
Finding their way . . . Seniors.

What Is Ramblin'?

Heather

A friend is one who understands your past, believes in your future and accepts you today just the way you are.

The dictionary tells us that it means to roam about aimlessly. That seems to sum it up nicely. Though sometimes we find things that give our nights purpose. Big Gulps, getting film, McDonald's, Katie's p.l., I'm gonna whale, What are you flying? Pissang! Hold it Howie! Check Chuck! the contract in the fort, you're such a 'woman', You're just too much for me. It happened in the summer. You weren't here. I was in Hampton Beach, N.H. all summer! With all my Newburyport 'buddies'!!! 4-wheeling, little white corvette, let's stop for a moment and reflect, What's a Beef? My best buddy! Kris and Jennifer. Speak-easy on Wednesdays, Big Hug, P.A.F. Base, Bubba Dubbas, awesome beast, Nad and Pepsi fight, Have you cut your toenails today? Pam, Nancy, and Kacey, Bite my Butt! Uh Huh!! Mustcheplishnais-seeseicklesatourgerun, Laura, Colleen, Melissa, Sheila, Michelle, Selina, Angela, Kim,,,,,, We're All RAMBLIN'!!!

Michelle

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness.

Summer '83 ... Beach Bums ... Boston ... pooka - wookas ... "We have to talk!" ... "Age doesn't matter!" ... keychains ... "Fine!" ... bike ... "J.B.ers" ... "Munchkin" ... "L.S." ... "Pee - wee Brain" ... 50 bucks ... "Catch - ya later" ... Best Buddies (you and me) ... Chester's ... Muck #1 ... Captains? ... Mr. Pond ... Look out D.R.! ... "My Sharona" ... Mac's ... "Catch air!" ... high hopes ... The Speedway ... P.D.'s tire ... Randy's ... "My Datsun" ... Snickers ... Beth ... Maryanne ... Alma ... Liz ... Ken ... Jon ... Selina ... Kim ... Heather ... Karen ... Sue ... Thanks guys. You mean so much to me.

Kim

You only live once,
but if you live right once is enough.

Ramblin'!!!

The three musketeers ... Ang, "The Woman", Heather, Selina, and who can forget, "It'll all blow over", "Bite my butt uh huh" & "One more day till Beef!" Hold it Howie, Check Chuck. Hampton Beach '83 ... The Moulton Hotel ... The 40 lb. suitcase ... Hide the suitcase Ang, my mother's coming ... Where am I gonna sleep to-night? ... McDonald's ... Katies p.l. ... Give me an R _____', The Guys from Newburyport ... Gunner ... Little white corvette ... Deny everything ... Why do I always get caught? ... Twelve O'clock Rose ... Gary the Stud ... Prom '83 ... Michelob ... The Dart, The Custom Dart, It Whales! Thanks for all the Ramblin' times. I'll never forget you guys.

Selina

You are never given a wish without also being given the power to make it come true.

Friends

What are friends? What is their purpose? They are people to laugh with (as we scream out the Dart), cry with (about S.A.T. scores), but most of all get in trouble with (conferences with Connie). They are people to go with to Mac's, Chinese Restaurants, parties, and even work at the Donut Factory. A friend is someone who will just stare out your bedroom window and talk about "life" with you or someone who will start work at 4:00 a.m. with you every weekend. Friends can be people you've known since grammar school, and even though you don't see them as often as you would like, you know they're still there for you when you need them most. Friends are people to have fun with!!! Thanks . . . Angela, Kim, Michelle, Heather, Barbie, Karen . . .

Our destiny unfolds
With each and every day.
The people in our lives
Help send us on our way.

Pastors give us faith;
Believers give us dreams.
Mentors give us stance;
Followers are the streams.

Without our successors
There would be no reason
For us to leave footprints
To be followed each new season.

So with this we thank you,
Our friends, for being there.
We'll leave you new horizons
And our everlasting care.

More than school is needed
To help mature the mind,
We need communication
To break the ties that bind.

The competition of a game,
The teamwork it involves;
The collaboration in a club,
The conflicts it resolves.

The gratifying feeling
Of fellowship so near.
Learning how to care for others,
To confront that which we fear.

When crossing new horizons
And doubt imbibes the mind
The assurance of good friendship
Helps the pathway to unwind.

Faces changing every year;
Seasons passing by.
Finding ways to link each cycle
With a ribbon tie.

Gather all the customs
And put them in a box,
Secure it with the ribbon
And hide it in the rocks.

Dig it up again
Just when the moments right,
And then all our yesterdays
Become a guiding light.

Following the footsteps
Of faces from the past.
Introducing new ideas
To traditions that will last.

TRADITIONS

First Mass September 9, 1983

Members of the Class of 1984 participate in their First Mass as seniors at OLA. First row: H. Haley; S. Rowan, M. McMahon; M. Dumeny; back row: M. Caronna; L. Meyer; O. Walker.

Fr. George Couturier, spiritual director, recites the Eucharistic prayer.

The first reading is proclaimed by Nicole Smith during First Mass.

Fr. George exchanges the sign of peace with S. Camerota, J. Katkavich, K. Masamery, and H. Haley; Nancy Rogers shares a greeting with classmates in the second row.

Frosh Day September 23, 1983

Freshmen dressed in togas and blindfolded by the seniors attempt to feed each other pudding, chocolate of course, during the Frosh Day activities.

Johanna Livingston and Erin Mackie try to transport a balloon back to back.

Marla Rozman finds that it's somewhat difficult to move jello with a straw.

New sophomores Theresa Bachiochi and Kim Russo, both in shorts, get to join in initiation fun along with the freshmen.

Adoption October 21, 1983

After lunch and adoption day ceremonies, the juniors made the entire day official with a special song written for their new "little sisters."

Bernadette Rossano, class president, hosts the festivities.

Sandra Barberi gives a certificate of adoption to Cara DellaGiustina her "little sis."

Gayle Landry shows that there is no "big sis" hiding behind curtain #3.

Kim Maturo '87 clowns around for the judges at the UNICEF Costume Day Benefit.

The Great Pumpkin? ... who else but Carol Zimmerman '84?

Nancy Rogers '84 makes a "shining" appearance before the judges.

Winners of the costume contest include midgets Theresa Bachiochi and Nancy Lewis '86 and rock 'n' roller Kris Lundberg '85.

Halloween October 28, 1983

Ring Day December 3, 1983

Mary Daigle, Diana McConnell and Kathy Sznajder receive roses from their little sisters Jennifer Richard and Tracy Roberts.

Juniors leave the sanctuary after they receive their class rings.

Micheline Johnson, Melissa Colson, Christine Anderson, Bridget Hynes and Tammy Noble portray the poor family that lives at the mercy of "Edna Scrooge."

Santa had a little trouble getting "his" act together.

Christmas is a time for friends and presents.

Christmas Play December 23, 1983

Catholic Schools' Week

Jan. 30 - Feb. 3, 1984

Mother M. Landeline, academy president, receives CSW proclamation from Mayor O'Connor.

Fr. George Couturier celebrates the CSW liturgy in the assembly room.

Mr. Swanbeck takes time out to enjoy a Faculty Day treat delivered by juniors Elise Dumeny and Kelly Green.

Heather Haley '84 beats Fr. George to the buzzer as the seniors challenged the faculty in this year's Faculty Feud. Bernadette Rossano '85 hosted.

Mr. S. Anderson conducts the band on the opening night of the festival.

Sarah Johnson '86 poses next to her charcoal drawing.

Members of the chorus: K. Ellis; C. DellaGiustina; T. Patkus; L. Licitra; K. Knapps; M. Salgado; K. Miodonka; O. Walker; E. Hamel; and K. Creswell perform.

Arts Festival May 4 - 6, 1984

Coronation May 15, 1984

The Class of 1987 host the Coronation ceremonies.

Bernadette Shattuck, Michelle Turek, Tracey Secondo, Kristen Fuller, Kelly Johnson, Tamara Patkus, Cathy Ellis, and Kim Maturo preside over the ceremony.

Sr. Constance and Kim Maturo, class president, present a check to a representative from the Enfield Chapter of Birthright.

Mary Daigle, Kathy Sznajder and Kristen Miodonka man the grill for the Field Day sponsored by the Junior class. Hot dogs and fun were on the day's menu.

Children from the Enfield Day Care Center helped OLA celebrate.

Field Day May 24, 1984

History is defined
As events that are past,
Junctoral records
Collected by the mass.

Resting in a cabinet,
Or sitting on a shelf;
All of the memories
Making up the self.

The fun we had together,
The crying that took place;
Connecting all the names
To every single face.

Learning from experience
To open up new doors.
And leaving all the memoirs
From the class of '84.

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman

Army sergeant, Mrs. Renee Bertrand - Social Studies teacher - drills prospective freshmen during initiation. Freshmen include cadets M. Dumeny, O. Walker, J. Graham, A. Irving, and S. Rowan on Frosh Day 1980.

Maria Caronna shares lunch with her "big sisters," Jacqueline Dumoulin and Melinda Armentano.

Sheila Rowan crowned the statue of the Blessed Mother during Coronation ceremonies. JoEllen Graham was crown bearer and Jennifer Katkavich attendant.

Sheila Rowan, class officer, reads the Arbor Day proclamation to the student body and faculty.

Sophomore

M. Dumeny, B. Roberts, S. Camerota and R. Dumoulin portray the 1981 play, "A Change in Christmas Spirit," by Laura Guiliano '82.

"We looked like that?" Our Sophomore class included: M. Caronna, S. Camerota, R. Dumoulin, L. Russell, N. Smith, C. Zimmerman, O. Walker, D. Douglas, J. Katkavich, M. Dumeny, H. Haley, K. Stockley, B. Roberts, S. Rowan, and K. Masamery.

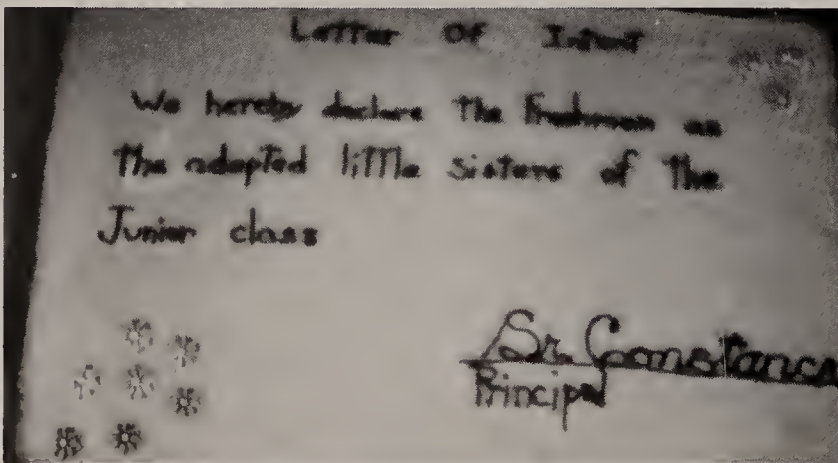

Junior

Kim Masamery and Heather Haley were simply "angelic" in their junior year. Well, at least they were at the Halloween party!

Juniors accept the daisy chain from the Class of 1983. The tradition symbolizes the friendships OLA offers.

Little sisters were officially adopted in September.

Sr. Constance cuts Michelle Dumeny's ribbon during the Ring Day ceremony.

Senior

Debra Douglas reads the poem "Footprints," theme for this year's Last Mass. Seniors gave a copy of the poem to everyone present.

Heather Haley and Kim Masamery present offertory gifts to Fr. George Couturier.

Marie Ravenola welcomes seniors to the OLA Alumnae Association.

Each senior received a silk rose and a medal from the alumnae.

Class Night

Fr. George Couturier delivers the invocation.

Att. Michael Camerota emphasizes the significance of faith in the search for hopes and dreams.

Nancy Rogers, valedictorian, prepares to address the audience.

Nicole Smith wishes Laurence Meyer, at right, success as she returns to her home in France.

As their final gift, the Class of '84 presents the juniors with the traditional daisy chain.

We, the Senior class, have said our goodbyes to everyone at OLA who has touched our lives. Though we will be leaving the academy in body, we will never leave in spirit. What we have learned here will stay with us for the rest of our lives as a constant reminder of all the times we've shared, good and bad. Our senior year was certainly memorable. Thank-you.

Graduates stand for the reading of the Gospel.

Heather Haley and Jennifer Katkavich offer candles.

Laurence Meyer and Kim Masamery bring diplomas to the altar. In back, Carol Zimmerman carries the academy emblem.

Graduation

Sheila Rowan receives her diploma from Sr. Constance.

Dear Members of the Class of '84;

On behalf of all the faculty, I extend to you our warm good wishes and congratulations. We are glad to have had these four years of your education entrusted to us. We have regarded the time given us to prepare you for leadership in the Church and in society as a sacred trust.

The "moments of grace" that have made up the OLA Academy experience for you with their sorrows shared, joys celebrated, and friendships cultivated have come to an end, and now you must go and live out those lessons learned so well here.

Our Lady of the Angels Academy has given you much and you much to her, but the one gift we most need to exchange, for the welfare of your future and ours, is what the poet Theodore Morrison calls "virtue of soul." We are too proud to acknowledge our needs to the waiting world, but privately, in the presence of God, we dare to do so, in the fervent hope and firm belief that by His grace our lives might show forth virtue in the meekness of our wisdom.

It will not be easy; it will take faith in the enterprise, faith in God — because you cannot do it alone — and faith in faith. I know the world is a fearful and dangerous place, and I know you know those fears. I wish you therefore, my dear friends, the experience that God is good and that He holds you in the palm of His hand.

The Lord bless your life journey.

Sincerely,

Sister Constance M. Tonn
